

JUNE 2015: PRAY WITHOUT CEASING

Please join us in praying for the following cases and issues in which The Rutherford Institute (TRI) is involved:

| Sun | Mon | Tue | Wed | Thu | Fri | Sat |
|--|--|--|--|---|---|--|
| To make a tax-deductible donation in support of TRI's much-needed legal and educational work, call 1-800-225-1791 or visit us online at www.rutherford.org . | For TRI's ongoing efforts to educate Americans about the dangers of the emerging American police state . | For constitutional attorney John W. Whitehead and his team of freedom fighters as they stand up to the government's power grabs. | For TRI attorneys as they challenge the arrest and detention of a Marine who criticized the government on Facebook. | That a federal court will declare New Jersey's anti-bullying law unreasonable and a violation of students' free speech rights. | For TRI as it challenges the Obama Administration's Common Core standards in the schools. | For TRI as it educates and equips communities with the tools to protect Americans against threats to their safety and privacy posed by the domestic use of drones . |
| For TRI attorneys as they challenge the government's domestic spying program directed at innocent Americans. | For the innocent victims of government asset forfeiture schemes , who have their homes, cars and bank accounts seized under false charges. | For the 37-year-old disabled man who was arrested, searched and detained by police based on his slurred speech and unsteady gait . | For the Phoenix homeowner forced to serve 60 days in jail for holding Bible studies for friends and family in his own home. | For the Okla. resident whose religious objections to a biometric photo for a drivers' license have been ignored. | For the 8th grader who was body slammed & arrested by police for wearing rosary beads to a school football game. | For TRI as it challenges school zero tolerance policies that criminalize childish behavior . |
| Praise: That Virginia officials agreed to respect a church's First Amendment right to display pro-life posters on its own property. | For TRI as it defends the First Amendment rights of street performers and musicians. | For TRI attorneys as they defend Americans' Fourth Amendment right to bodily integrity in the face of roadside strip searches and forced blood draws. | For TRI as it defends the 4-year-old who was handcuffed, shackled and transported to the police station , allegedly for acting up in class. | That John W. Whitehead's new book "Battlefield America" would inspire Americans to stand up for their freedoms . | That the Supreme Court will agree with TRI about the need to protect the internet as a vital forum for free speech . | For TRI as it challenges the government's tendency to criminalize activities such as growing vegetables in one's yard. |
| For the protester arrested for silently holding a sign opposing police brutality in front of the U.S. Supreme Court. | For TRI as it warns against the government's efforts to create a national database of DNA and biometrics in order to track and identify citizens. | For TRI as it challenges the Obama Administration over its lack of transparency and scare tactics to discourage gov't whistleblowers . | For TRI as it defends an Oregon resident who was arrested for filming a SWAT team raid in his neighborhood. | For TRI in its efforts to challenge the government's expansive American Community Survey as an unreasonable invasion of privacy. | That communities will speak out against government programs that allow police agencies to receive free military equipment for use by their SWAT teams. | |
| For the Chicago elem. schoolteacher suspended for demonstrating the use of household tools as part of the curriculum. | For TRI as it prepares to release national guidelines for citizens on their rights during encounters with the police . | For endowments and bequests to ensure the continuation of vital TRI programs. | "Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free." - Ronald Reagan | | | |
